A3 Sex workers experience violence largely because of the stigma and social isolation they operate in. And since it's an illegal occupation, sex workers are less likely to seek help compared to the general population (also facing certain stigmas regarding sex crimes). #macrosw

Alberto Cifuentes Jr @BurBur4Eva @porndaughter There was actually a really good Law and Order SVU episode based on this myth. Two college students saw a female porn actress in a dorm and raped her because she seemed to "enjoy" it in porn. I know shows like this are over-dramatized, but it illustrated some rape myths. #macrosw

5.) Stigma increases violence. Various studies have noted a correlation between anti-sex work rhetoric that sees street-based workers as a nuisance or threat to public order and an increase in violence against workers. #macrosw
