Nancy Kusmaul, PhD, MSW @nancy_kusmaul Hi #MacroSW! @nancy_kusmaul a little late to the party tonight because I was out doing macrosw by going to a community meeting.

UB-Social Work @UBSSW @poliSW Same for me in the #MSW program @UBSSW. #MacroSW

Nicole Clark Consulting @NicoleClarkLMSW A1a: My 1st year field placement was assigned to me by @ColumbiaSSW's field placement office. It was at a HIV/AIDS comprehensive care clinic. It was great because, while I had experience in HIV prevention, I had the opportunity to work more with people living with HIV #MacroSW

Jen Parga @SD_SocialWorker @poliSW A1. As a student, I didn't know where I wanted to be (except social work). Having an open mind helped with the process! I ended up learning a lot! #MacroSW

Adrienne Garr @adriennecgarr @poliSW A1a. My 1st placement was with a the largest agency in WNY who serves the ID/DD population. It was more clinical than I had anticipated. My advanced year placement was with the VA and that was an amazing experience as well #MacroSW

I’ve been: A BSW/MSW student who wasn’t assigned to my top agency choices but still had valuable experiences. A field supervisor to BSW/MSW students. A field coordinator/liaison, assigning BSW students to placements. Each role helped me understand field in a new way. #MacroSW https://t.co/wfaW490DVk

Nancy Kusmaul, PhD, MSW @nancy_kusmaul
@adriennecgarr @UMSocialWork It was a 16 month, four semester program- Fall, Spring, Summer, Fall. We were in placement from January-December. #macrosw

Dr. Tom Felke @SocWrkDoc
A1b) Ours was very hands-on. Helped walk us through the selection process before turning is loose for interviews. Trying to mimic that now that I’m on the other side as an Administrator. #MacroSW

Nicole Clark Consulting @NicoleClarkLMSW
A1a: My second year placement involved working with one of @ColumbiaSSW's professors, Dr. Rogério Pinto, on a community-based participatory research project. Great mezzo/macro experience and paved the way for me to do the consulting work I do now. #MacroSW #socialwork

Vivian Taylor MSW 2020 @TayloredLooks
@nancy_kusmaul @UMSocialWork They still do it this way depending on a student's track. So many of us don’t know what to look for. Also #socialwork allows you to evolve into diff jobs/areas over time. Placement isn’t going to give us everything. #MacroSW
Kristin B. Frazee @porndaughter

Q1a. My first-year placement was at a drug treatment center and my second year was at a hospital. Students during my time didn’t have much input in the process. Now it is much different. I learned a great deal at both places. #MacroSW

Linda Grobman - The New Social Worker @newsocialworker

Hey #MacroSW checking in a bit late. Love talking about/thinking about field

RT @poliSW: Q2a: What expectations did/do you have going into field? #MacroSW

A1a. Not at my first school. The second did a much better job listening to what I was saying and looking at what I needed. (I still needed to be doing paid work and couldn’t, though, which is a whole other thing.)

A1b: I don’t remember the name of the event, but @ColumbiaSSW had an assembly day during spring semester for 1st year students to learn about the 2nd year field placement process. We were also given a lengthy guide of all locations in NYC that had placements. #MacroSW

👑 Adrienne Garr👑 @adriennecgarr
@poliSW A4. I wish I would have known from the start that I truly belong in social work. I struggled with identifying as a social worker. I did badly on an exam, had a break down and considered dropping the program. I'm glad I stayed the course.😊 #MacroSW

A3 wow... everyday... lol... so many... ok I’ll use one that’s more macro... I was at an elementary school in the South Bronx. In addition to individual & group work, I was looking at the school as a client... 1/ #MacroSW

Shimon Cohen @ShimonDCohen
There were numerous disciplinary issues at the school. There was a Dean or Discipline (something like that) & her office was packed w/ students every day. I wanted to implement a broader intervention. 2/ #MacroSW

Shimon Cohen @ShimonDCohen
I did some research & found an evidence-based peer mediation program. I also found best practices in implementation. The best practices said all stakeholders needed to be on board, particularly admin 3/ #MacroSW

Shimon Cohen @ShimonDCohen
My supervisor was on board. But I could not get a meeting with admin. I was really stuck in wanting to follow best practices! My supervisor told me to write a ONE PAGE PROPOSAL for the Principal. I did & I got 5 minutes to present my proposal 4/ #MacroSW
Shimon Cohen @ShimonDCohen
The Principal said if I could find a teacher to let me pilot the program in class, then go for it. She (the Principal) was very supportive, just VERY BUSY. I easily found one teacher! I knew a third grade teacher was very overwhelmed w/ classroom behavior. 5/ #MacroSW

Shimon Cohen @ShimonDCohen
He (the teacher) immediately agreed! “You’ll come teach for an hour?!? Awesome!” We did the program that year. Next year my supervisor expanded it to the entire grade. I even went to visit. Then eventually the entire school! 6: #MacroSW

Shimon Cohen @ShimonDCohen
I learned that best practices & many other written practices, interventions, ways of doing things, etc often are not reality and to be creative, trust those who know the system & go for it! 7/7 #MacroSW

Vivian Taylor MSW 2020 @TayloredLooks
@poliSW A4. To keep a professional journal, where you write down your daily tasks/assignments in #MacroSW terms. This helps with articulating your experience in interviews in a professional manner. Do that to secure your position!

Kristin B. Frazee @porndaughter
Last parting thought. Even if you don’t get the placement you wanted, be open to the experience it might bring. It could be transformative in ways you didn’t expect. #MacroSW
